1. The Vrana royal palace is the scene of occasional meetings of Cominform personalities from Bucharest and other localities. The apartments reserved for this purpose have been assigned a permanent staff.
2. The avenues approaching the palace are guarded by Bulgarian soldiers. Many Russian cars with Russian drivers use these avenues.
3. Members of the Russian High Command also meet at the palace occasionally.
4. Numerous villas have been assigned as quarters to high Soviet officers in the Boyana area southwest of Sofia on the Kiustendil road.
